Chapter 1 by Jackson Xiong

It happened when I was little. My parents died in a car crash, but I saw it coming. I don't know how I saw the crash before it happened. It happened so fast. I know who did it. It was me.

Chapter 2 by Brock Thompson

I remember liking it. I remember reaching over for the steering wheel, smiling and laughing at what would happen. I remember feeling joy as I looked into my mother's deep, fearful eyes.

Chapter 3 by ghuh

I started to laugh like a maniac as my mom looked at me in fear. My dad in terror. Suddenly the car crashed into a brick house hitting the people inside. I laughed harder until it all went dark.
